SEAL BEACH CITY COUNCIL TO RECEIVE INCIDENT RESPONSE REPORT

The Seal Beach City Council will receive an update from city staff regarding the response to the shooting incident at its Oct. 24th meeting. The Seal Beach Police Department and City Manager's Office will detail the various steps taken during and following the incident. The meeting will begin at 7 p.m. in the Council Chambers.

"This tragedy has affected nearly every corner of our community," said Mayor Michael Levitt. "This meeting will allow the City Council and community to learn about the efforts of city staff as they responded to and managed the incident response," he added.
